JORŌGUMO

The Devouring Bride

Jorōgumo, the legendary spider yōkai, is known as the “entangling bride” who disguises herself as a beautiful woman to lure men into her deadly web.
Living in forests, caves, and abandoned houses, she traps her prey with silk stronger than steel. With cunning intelligence and venomous power, she slowly drains the life from those who fall for her charm.

In this interpretation, she appears as a pregnant mother spider, carrying new life while feeding on captured souls.A haunting blend of seduction and terror, she represents the dark beauty and danger hidden within the web.

In her web, love is a lure,and birth is fed by the fallen.
